EASLEY REAPPOINTS SPRUILL TO ROBESON COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD

RALEIGH — Gov. Mike Easley reappointed Willie Edward Spruill of Fairmont to the Robeson Community College Board of Trustees.

Spruill is a resource soil scientist for the Natural Resources Conservation Service of the USDA. He is a member of the North Carolina Soil Science Society and serves on the advisory board of the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics. Spruill received his bachelor's degree in agronomy from North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University.

The duties of the Robeson Community College Board of Trustees are: to elect a president to the institution; to employ all other personnel to the community college; to purchase land that is necessary for the operation of the college; to apply the standards for admission and graduation of the students of the institution; to receive and accept donations given to the community college; and to provide all or part of the instructional services for the institution. The board consists of 12 members who serve four-year terms. The Governor appoints four members.
